

NATHAN W. OLSON

735 Raymond Ave. Apt 209 St. Paul, MN 55114 | 740.971.5118 | olsonathan@gmail.com

New to web development, with 10 years of project management and supervisory experience in manufacturing with a proven track record of improving efficiencies while maintaining quality. Capable leader able to effectively manage employees, prioritize needs, and produce results while complying with budget and time constraints. Demonstrated ability to develop technical policies and procedures to meet engineering, purchasing, and strategic objectives. Skilled communicator and trainer.

Areas of Expertise & Technical Skills

- HTML, CSS, Javascript
- Node.js
- Express.js, and React.js
- MongoDB
- Project Management
- Stakeholder Communication
- Process Control and Improvement
- New Product Development
- Planning and Scheduling
- Leadership and Training
- Quality Assurance
- Electronics Manufacturing

Professional Experience

CIVACON, Riverside, MO

2017-2018

Production Supervisor—Electronics Assembly

- Managed employees assembling electronic control components for fuel tanker trucks.
- Planned and scheduled work load using Oracle ERP.
- Performed testing and inspection of components and assemblies.
- Participated in New Product Development.
- Led activities to support facility shutdown and relocation to Hamilton, OH.

SMITH AND LOVELESS, Lenexa, KS

2012-2017

Production Supervisor – Electrical Assembly

- Managed union employees building and installing wastewater treatment and pumping stations.
- Improved processes and operations to meet quality standards and business objectives.
- Troubleshoot technical issues and conducted testing as well as instructed inspection staff.
- Was the Liaison between customers and engineering to improve satisfaction.
- Key player in final acceptance and approval for product delivery.

GENERAL MOTORS (AEROTEK), Kansas City, KS

2012

Production Supervisor – Quality Group Lead

- Managed groups performing in-process inspections on Chevy Malibu and Buick LaCrosse.
- Audited inspectors' work and updated quality procedures to ensure continued success.
- Completed root cause analysis to prevent defects and presented results daily.
- Collected data and maintained records regarding quality defects.

DIT-MCO INTERNATIONAL EMMS DIVISION, Kansas City, MO

2007-2012

Production Supervisor – Electro-mechanical

- Strategically assessed internal processes to foster improvements in quality and client relations.
- Quoted and scheduled projects as central point of contact for internal and external stakeholders.
- Determined project needs and created associated control procedures and training for production team.
- Analyzed operational performance for quality, price, and timeline to address potential issues.

Production Coordinator

- Created value-added process improvements in response to customer requests.
- Supervised aircraft electrical cable and test panel manufacturing processes.
- Assembled and tested components.

Education & Training

Full Stack Web Development Certificate, University of Minnesota, 2019

Graduate Certificate in Project Management, Avila University, 2012

Bachelor of Liberal Arts, University of Missouri – Kansas City, 2008

Associate Degree in Aviation Maintenance Technology, Columbus State Community College, 2005